Lyndon, Oct. 18.

BENNINGTON COUNTY.

At Bennington, last week, a couple from the Emerald Isle went to the Catholic church to be married, and while kneeling at the altar the priest put the question to the young lady if she would agree to carry out the requirements of the marriage. And when she flatly answered in the negative, "No," said the astonished divine, "rise up." She did rise up and left the church, and left Patrick kneeling at the altar, but in wonder and no doubt cursing his luck.

ESSEX COUNTY.

The Coos Republican says that on Thursday last week, Mr. Henry Washburn of Goshen, Vt., was kicked by a vicious horse he was leading him into the barn. The kick took effect on the face, fracturing the skull, breaking the cheek bone, and it is feared putting out one eye. We are informed that the injuries are supposed to be mortal; the animal was presumed by him to be gentle, being one he had recently purchased.

ORANGE COUNTY.

The Bradford Guards had a target exercise last week. The three prizes were taken by David Morrison, C. T. Blodgett and G. W. Flanders. The Telegraph says that judging from some of the shots said to have been made, it would be dangerous for an enemy to be lurking about in the vicinity.

The same paper learns that Harry W. Mann, who left his home in Corinth on the 27th of December last, and from whom nothing has been heard, but who has been frozen, drowned, murdered, and confined in state's prison by turns, by his anxious and very much interested friends, rather unexpectedly made his appearance at home on Tuesday the 4th inst., looking well and hearty.

Mr. Henry Whicker of Newbury, and W. F. George of Topsham are the owners of an imported English buck, of the Cumbroid blood, five years old, weighing 225 pounds. During the two years past he has shaven 23 1/2 pounds of wool, which is eleven inches long, very fine in quality, and commanding a high price. This year it was sold for 55 cents.

ORLEANS COUNTY.

There was a horse show at Burton Landing on the 6th and 7th. The weather was cold and the spectators few. Gilman's, Holmes' and Ballard's horses were on the track, and the Standard gives the following account of the last two races:

For the purse of $50, J. F. Gilman of Bradford, entered a young stallion, known as the "Baldwin Horse"; P. B. Holmes of Derby Line entered a black gelding; O. S. Remond of Troy entered a bay Messenger mare, six years old.

This was the most exciting and hardest contested race of the day. The first heat was won by the Durian mare, which was undeniably the best "foote" of the three, and only wants a little great training to show some quick time. But she now breaks badly and will not come down to her work. The other two were very evenly matched, and both behaved well. The race was won after seven heats by the Gilman horse. The best time was made in 2:41.

A premium of $100, open to all trotting horses, $75 to the best, $25 to 2d best, milieus, 3 in 5 to 6 harness. H. N. Clark of Dunham, C. E., entered a black huck mare, and C. B. Hallard of Hartland entered a bay horse. This race was easily won by the Clark mare, which is the prettiest going horse we have seen on a race course for a long time. She made one half-mile in 1:16. Times 2:45—2:44—2:43.

The fair at Craftsbury came off on Thursday. The editor of the Standard, who was present, says it was far ahead of any fair that has ever been held within the borders of Orleans county. Albany alone eclipsed the Valley, for her sons rode on to the fair ground drawn by seventy-five pairs of oxen.

The Standard gives us the following items: On Sunday morning in last week, between 12 and 1 o'clock, the new store lately built and occupied by C. W. Smith, was discovered on fire. The fire had so far progressed, that it was impossible to extinguish it when discovered. A part of the contents were saved. The origin of the fire is unknown, there having been none in the store for a number of hours before. Well insured.

At an early hour on Wednesday morning of last week, Mr. Uriah C. Griggs, a citizen of North Troy, was kidnapped and with force carried across the line into Canada, as is supposed by one O'Brien, a Canadian, and several accomplices. Said Griggs was then seized by the Queen's attorney, charge of arson filed against him by said O'Brien—examined before magistrate Gilman—indignantly adjudged guilty, and in default of bail was committed to Montreal jail to await his trial before the Queen's Bench. On Friday, O'Brien was arrested in behalf of the State while attending the race at Burton, on charges of kidnapping said Griggs, and taken for examination before Justice Robinson at North Troy. The attorney for the State pleaded a continuance on account of the deposing of State evidence, by some unprincipled persons, which was granted. The defense then waived examination, and O'Brien was released on bail to his trial before the Queen's Bench. On Friday, Oct. 18, Mr. Enos Farwell
